HON. PARK AGNEW,
(Chairman of the State Republican Committee.)

THEY WILL ALL
BE FOR MCKINLEY

President to be Endorsed by the Norfolk Convention.

FOR DELEGATES AT LARGE.

Park Agnew, James D. Brady and S. Brown Allen will be Three of These—Bowden for National Committeeman.

The State Republican Convention will be held at Norfolk on the 10th of April. Four delegates-at-large to the National Convention and two electors-at-large will be chosen.

The District Convention will elect two delegates and an elector.

A new State Committee is to be chosen. Each district convention will elect three members. The thirty committeemen will select an Executive Committee of five persons, and designate one for chairman.

All factions of the party will recognize as "regular" the call for the convention issued by Chairman Park Agnew. The rival organization, which was known as the Lamb-Wickham Committee, and was presided over by Col. Wm. F. Wickham, has apparently gone out of existence. The apparently new organization recognizes the Agnew organization as the regular one, and that settled the matter.

WISDOMEN FRACTION.

There are still rival organizations in some of the counties and cities, and several contesting delegations will appear at the Norfolk Convention.

Most of these will be from the Second District, where the followers of Congressman R. A. Wise are keeping up their fight against the regular party organization.

There was a lack of harmony in the Republican party in this State, for some time after the State Convention of 1896, which was held at Staunton. The four delegates chosen at that time turned down Col. Wm. Lamb as chairman. His followers rallied about him and organized a committee of their own, which, as has been stated, was declared by the National body to be irregular.

Col. Lamb, during the last year or two, has not taken an active part in politics. Many of those who supported him are now openly identified with what is called the administration wing of the party.

There will not be a very large attendance of delegates and alternates at the Norfolk convention, for no very important questions are to be settled. The Convention will be practically unanimous in its support of McKinley for re-election. He and all his policies will be endorsed.

FOR DELEGATES AT LARGE.

Hon. Park Agnew, Col. James D. Brady, Hon. S. Brown Allen will be three of the four delegates-at-large. The fourth will be some person from Southwest Virginia, possibly Mr. J. I. Gleaves, of Wythe county; or Gen. James A. Walker. There are no candidates out of electors-at-large.

Hon. Geo. D. Bowden, of Norfolk, is the National Committeeman, and will be a candidate for re-election. While he will be opposed by Representative R. A. Wise and his followers, there is no doubt about his re-election.

The State Executive Committee practically controls the Republican party in Virginia. This body is composed of Park Agnew (chairman), James D. Brady, John Collins, S. Brown Allen and James A. Walker. All of them will be candidates for re-election, and it is not likely that any change will be made.

FROM THIRD DISTRICT.

Members, Dear Allan and Morgan Treat are spoken of as the probable delegates from the Third District. The fourth, the Richmond Republicans will hold Mackey, M. A. Colaw and George D. Dudley, all of the county, the choice of the Republicans of this county is for Colonel Hubbard, as nominee for Congress.

Mrs. Gertrude Campbell, wife of W. P. Campbell, Esq., commissioner of the revenue for this county, died this morning at 3 o'clock. She was the youngest daughter of Amos R. Ball, who lived in Richmond many years ago.

She leaves two sons—Raleigh W. and W. P. Campbell, Jr. The funeral services will be conducted by Rev. F. G. Nevitt, of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, at this place.

KING WILLIAM REPUBLICANS.

Elect Delegates to Districts and State Convention.

KING WILLIAM C. H., Va., March 24.—Special.—The Republicans of King William met to-day in mass-meeting and elected delegates to District and State conventions, as follows:

To State convention: Morgan Great, H. Anderson, Dr. W. A. Mitchell, J. S. DeFargus and C. P. Snead.

To District convention: To meet in Manchester: H. Anderson, C. B. Whit, R. S. Ryland, C. P. Snead, R. P. James, Tazewell Willis, Jr., Joseph Baylor, J. H. Montague, Henry Hill, and Rowland Jones, each with one-half vote. Resolutions endorsing the McKinley administration and endorsing the Republican State Committee were adopted unanimously.

In the Federal Courts.

The answer of the Commercial Building and Loan Association has not as yet been filed in the United States District Court, April 23 is the last day of the time allowed for the filing of this paper.

Subpoenas were served in the involuntary bankruptcy proceedings of A. J. Bell and others against A. Goldbach, returnable on March 29th. With the subpoenas were served copies of the petitions and supplemental statements of creditors.

Owing to the illness of General Edgar Allan, United States District Attorney, the sessions of the spring term have been postponed from April 24 to May 1st. The grand jurors have been notified to appear on the last named day and the petit jurors the day following.

On Capitol Hill.

Messrs. A. O. Alexander, sheriff of Hanover, and J. P. Goode, Deputy sheriff of Chesterfield, and C. B. Fitzwillson, Justice of the peace of Henrico, were visitors at the Auditor's office yesterday. Constable Beadles, of Hanover, was also a visitor.

Colonel and Mrs. John W. Richardson have returned from a visit to Washington. Mrs. Richardson left for home in Marion, yesterday.

Mr. William R. Couck, of Lee county, formerly clerk in the Land Office, was a visitor at the Register's office.

Captain W. N. Dillard, of the Capitol police, is again on duty.

Captain G. W. Koimer, Commissioner of Agriculture, has returned from Washington.

With the Ambulance.

A white man fell from a wagon on Cary Street, and dislocated his collar bone about 9 o'clock yesterday morning. He was treated by Dr. Goode, of the ambulance, and taken to his home.

G. W. Hudgins was badly hurt yesterday while driving his wagon down Clay Street near St. James Street. His horses became frightened and ran away, throwing him from the wagon, breaking his left leg. He was taken by the ambulance to his home, No. 414 West Marshall Street.

Albert Lee had a fit near the corner of Seventeenth and Main Streets yesterday morning. He was treated by Dr. Goode.

Ill in Memphis.

A postal card has been received here from St. Joseph's Hospital, Memphis, Tenn., reading as follows:

"Kind friends:

"Mr. Charles Clifford is in our hospital very low, with pneumonia, and may die any time. He gave this address to send to in case he should die, but was unable to give any name. Any information will be gladly accepted."

The card was addressed "To Whom it May Concern, Seventh and Broad Streets, Richmond, Va."

No such name appears in the directory. Detective Tomlinson says, however, that the "Charles Clifford" referred to is probably Charles Clifford Crumpler, a river man, who was well known here some years ago.

Landgrabbers' Law.

A letter was received yesterday by Governor Tyler from a lady living in Richmond bearing a sad tale.

She says that some time ago she received a notice calling attention to delinquent taxes on her little piece of property. She was unable to pay the tax, but her friends came to her relief. Recently she was notified that the land-grabbers had purchased her property for $12.50, the amount of delinquent taxes a number of years ago. The offer was made by the purchaser to sell her the property for $25.

She asks assistance of the Governor to help her get the property.

Salvo Confirmed.

A decree was entered in the Law and Equity Court yesterday, granting the late William P. Lawton, and since his death having held the office by Judge Witt's appointment, I pledge myself, if elected, to bring to my aid the training and experience thus gained (and so essential) for the conscientious discharge of the duties of the office, and will endeavor in the future, as in the past, to faithfully serve the people of this city.

Very respectfully,
WALTER CHRISTIAN.

ARE YOU GOING TO THE PARIS EXPOSITION?

Wedding in Charlotte.

ROUGH CREEK, VA., March 22.—Special.—Mr. J. Baxter Marshall and Miss Pearl Sears, both of Appomattox county, were married very unexpectedly last Wednesday.

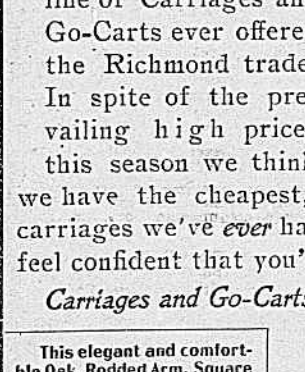

A resolution was adopted thanking Col. W. H. Mann for the use of his office and Col. John W. Richardson, Register of the Land Office, and other officials at the Capitol for courtesies and kindnesses extended. The Board then adjourned.
